BRISTOL, Tenn., July 6. (Sp.)—Bristol has the distinction of having what is probably the first Women's Democratic club in the state. At the close of the initial meeting, a resolution was unanimously adopted authorizing the following message to the governor of Tennessee:

"To His Excellency, Gov. A. H. Roberts, Nashville, Tenn.:
 "As president of the Women's Democratic club of Bristol, Tenn., and on behalf of the club, I wish to extend to you our deep appreciation of your willingness to call a special session of the legislature in response to the appeal of the women of our state and nation for the purpose of considering the adoption of the proposed Nineteenth amendment, because we feel that such a vote by our legislature will make a permanent part of the national constitution and give us equal suffrage throughout the nation."

"MRS. FRANK W. DEPREE,
 "President Bristol Women's Democratic Club."

Parker, commanding Companies M and L of the national guard, respectively, to plan other steps to obtain 100 per cent attendance. Members of both companies who do not report at remaining drills, the captains announce, will be confined and taken to encampment under arrest, with a heavy fine resulting. Company M will drill again Thursday and next Monday nights. Company L will drill Wednesday and Friday nights of this week and also Wednesday night next week, which will be the day preceding the departure for camp. Members of Company A, the new organization here, will be temporarily transferred to the two infantry companies for encampment after which they will again become artillerymen and receive federal recognition. Recruits will be accepted for the battery on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights of this week at the armory, Main and Washington.
